BASKETBALL GLOOM AT MESILLA COLLEGE

Some of the Best Players Cannot Work With Them: College Notes.

Agricultural College, N. M., Jan. 18.—Gloom again has enveloped the local basketball situation. Will Hall of Nutt station has not returned to school and sends the report that he is out of it for this season, and Chas. Noyer of Albuquerque has failed to show up. In the meantime practice continues with what material is at hand. John K. Haggart has been elected captain to fill the vacancy made by Hall's departure. Haggart is a capable man and plays an excellent forward. The first game of the season for the boys will be played here on next Saturday evening. The El Paso Y. M. C. A. five will be the contestants. Many of the students went to Las Cruces last evening to attend the performance of "The Colonel's Wives" at the armory. Among those going were Boone, Jennings, Dillon, Gregg, Floyd, Nourse, Lyon, Knorr, Bauman, MacAntich, Stoenking, Shelton, Given, Blaine, Thomas and Eede. The Caruthers family will soon move to the Imperial valley, Cal. Yale will remain here and attend school. Miss Claire Buell, who for several weeks has been in El Paso, is now visiting her parents for a few days. Bert West of Prescott, Ariz., has been visiting in this neighborhood the last few days. The weather, which has been ideal for weeks, has taken a decided change for the worse. A cold wind is blowing from the north at a terrific rate and continued all through the night, freezing things up tight. The new residence of J. O. Miller will soon be completed and occupied by him.

Then Mrs. Green will assume charge of his present home, renting the rooms to roomers.

The girls' basketball team has returned from El Paso, where they took the high school six into camp to the tune of 13 to 5.

In the debate on woman's suffrage, Dillon, Ewing and Lyon for the affirmative were declared the victors. Dillon being ineligible for intercollegiate work, Ewing, Briggs and Poe were chosen to represent the freshman class in their debate with the El Paso high school.

The stork has delivered a little girl to Rev. Hunter Lewis and wife at Mesilla park.

The local Y. M. C. A. has some 75 persons enrolled in its bible classes that meet every Sunday morning at 8:30. The average attendance is good and a great work is being accomplished among the young men of this institution.

The Longacre family have moved from Mesilla park to their ranch, Miss Florence, who is teaching in the public school, has taken a room with the Hull family. Early in the spring the entire family will move to Phoenix, Ariz.

"Preacher" Lewis left for San Marcial to conduct his regular weekly services at that place, where he has quite a large pastorate.

Leo Young, who drove across country to the Black range during holidays, has returned to school. He spent several days at Tuusora.

At the Current Topics club's regular fortnightly meeting the principal speakers were Bonzman, Knorr and Fitzgerald. Esperanto, the new international language, was brought up for discussion.

Clairon Martin and mother have been visiting Mrs. Glinger at Mesilla park. Word has been received from Elmer Fullerton, a student who left here a short time ago and went to Los Angeles for an operation for appendicitis. He has been under the knife and passed the ordeal safely.

The baseball enthusiasts have decided to give a play as a means of raising funds to equip the team with new uniforms and other paraphernalia.

Walter Adams has withdrawn from school and is looking for a position in agricultural lines.

Dr. R. G. Crowder, superintendent of sanitation of the Pullman company, is in El Paso on a periodical tour of train inspection.

LIVELY TIMES IN WATER MEETING

Las Cruces Committee Has Not Yet Come to an Agreement.

Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 18.—The meeting of the city's committee last night was the liveliest gathering this body has had during its several weeks' work.

After about an hour's wrangling a vote prevailed indorsing the report of the sub-committee, whose report had been previously received, after which a motion was made by Prenger that the committee of twenty citizens recommended to the board of town trustees that it was the sense of this committee that the town should have and maintain its own waterworks.

This precipitated an argument which lasted till past 11 o'clock, when a motion prevailed to table the previous motion and the committee adjourned.

Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 18.—Nicholas Calles, president of the Mesilla Valley chamber of commerce, has a recent letter from governor George Curry, in which the governor states that the application of the chamber for funds from the territorial board for the purpose of building the Las Cruces to El Paso highway had his indorsement and it is saying that Las Cruces will be well remembered when the board makes up its budget.

The chamber asks for $5,000 at this time, which will give a good start, and president Calles is very hopeful that this amount will be forthcoming.

Are Accused in Las Cruces Court of Robbing a House; Deny It.

Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 18.—A. A. Lane and C. H. Currie, two young boys, were tried before Judge Valdez on a charge of burglary and larceny, alleged to have been committed at a small station near Hachita, the prosecuting witness testifying that they broke into his house and took a pistol, watch and razor.

The boys testified that a younger boy went into the house and got six pieces of bread but nothing else. They were held to await the action of the grand jury, and in default of $500 bond were remanded to jail.

FARMERS OF VALLEY TO DISCUSS FRUIT GROWING

Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 18.—The Mesilla Valley Farmers' institute will hold its regular monthly meeting in this city Thursday.

LAS CRUCES TO HOLD COUNTY FAIR THIS FALL
Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 18.—Donna Ana county has caught the county fair fever and that there will be held in the town of Las Cruces next fall a county fair is very probable. The chamber of commerce is to take steps at once in the project.
